

FOOD FOR REFLECTION.

A Few Thoughts in Relation to Northeast Washington.

SOME TERSELY TOLD TRUTHS

By One of the Foremost Leaders of Thought in That Section That Will Amply Justify a Careful Perusal.

TO SUBURBAN PEOPLE:

The object of the following lines is to attract the attention of the suburban people to the many superior advantages offered by the northeast section of Washington as a place of residence.

If you live in the suburbs and contemplate making a change, come to northeast section of Washington and look around.

It is a section that will bear the closest scrutiny.

It is a section that offers the greatest possible inducements to men of moderate means.

It is a section dotted with homes, peopled by orderly, law-abiding and thrifty people.

It offers to the tenant low rent and a comfortable home.

It offers to the purchaser numerous well-built houses at very low cost.

Among the thousand and more advantages offered by every well ordered city, you will find in Northeast Washington—

The very finest schools.

Ample police protection.

Excellent fire protection.

Rapid transit to all parts of the District of Columbia for one fare.

Well paved streets.

Well lighted streets.

Good sidewalks.

A complete and perfect sewerage system.

Churches of all denominations.

A good market.

A temple where many different lodges meet.

Societies of all kinds.

Theatres within easy access.

In short, everything that makes for the comfort, peace and well being of mankind.

In the matter of healthfulness Northeast Washington is the banner section of the District.

If you have been unfortunate enough to buy a home situated remote from the comforts of life and are ever fortunate enough to sell, come to Northeast Washington and we will put you in close touch with the good things of this life.

Do you suffer from—

Poor roads?

Poor sidewalks?

Poor police protection?

Poor fire protection?

Poor social surroundings?

Poor church advantages?

Poor municipal government?

If so, your symptoms indicate that a change would be desirable. Relief from all the above troubles may be had in Northeast Washington.

Respectfully,
LORENZ CHAPPEL,
822 H St. N. E.

Note—We have known Mr. Chappel for a number of years and it is no disparagement to other men of ability in Northeast Washington, neither is it any reflection on them to say that he stands out conspicuously as the one man whose opinion is most frequently sought and most highly valued.

He came to the Northeast section of Washington in 1872 with $17,000, which he invested there and he has resided in the same locality continuously ever since.

His faith in the section and its future was strong in 1872, and it has continued uninterruptedly ever since, being to-day stronger than ever.

He has built more than one hundred and twenty-five and possibly as many as one hundred and fifty houses in the Northeast section, and they have all been well built, substantial structures that have found ready sale.

He is one of the largest if not the largest holder of real property in his section, and a man whose word no one disputes.

He is a member of the Board of Trade and an active member of the Northeast Washington Citizens' Association, besides being connected with other organizations that make for progress.

His success has not warped his judgment, so that parties seeking his advice can rely absolutely on what he says. Suburban people who for any cause desire to make a change will find in the reflections over Mr.
Chappel's signature much food for thought and we commend them to our readers.—[Editor Suburban Citizen.]

BENNING NEWS.

Operator Elliott is away on a two weeks leave of absence.

It took Lewis Apperson just seven weeks to discover that he could not buy the Benning Hotel with wind. At present the license is in his name. Mr. Carahar takes in the money and the Pabst people pocket it. A funny state of affairs.

A Fine Poultry Establishment.

One of the finest poultry establishments to be found in this section of the country is that of Mr. Charles L. Blanton, which is located at Falls Church, Va., almost within sight of the city.
Mr. Blanton's extensive yards contain a large number of birds of the highest breeding, and wherever they have appeared at important poultry shows—he attends no others—they have proved easy winners of first-class prizes. His feathered beauties are not bred, however, for the show-room alone, but are quite as highly distinguished as utility birds. Seven out of eight specimens of his stock, exhibited at Philadelphia week before last, were prize winners.

Wood's Commercial College.

inent educational institutions in the a thorough business education. Ad-

HOME, SWEET HOME.

THERE IS NO PLACE LIKE HOME.

WHAT can make Home, especially a Suburban Home more beautiful than by surrounding it with some of nature's most beautiful plants, shrubs, evergreens, vines, &c.

Even a vacant lot will become more attractive, will improve in value, and find a more ready sale if planted with a few of the above mentioned stock.

During the dreary winter days a few well kept plants will make "Home" still more sweet and then they are much cheaper than short-lived cut flowers.

Studer, the well known Horticulturist, situated on Harrison Street, Anacostia, D. C., always keeps a large supply of reliable and healthy stock of the above and will gladly furnish same at very reasonable prices. Call on him or at his stands, 421 and 422 Centre Market, or write for particulars. A few items from his stock are mentioned below:

50c., Begonias, Geraniums and other blooming house plants, also the popular Umbrella
